CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

Pioneers' Appointments.

General Number 231 — B.—81. — Pioneers, 1.

Horse Guards, 18th November, 1856.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief having approved of a set of Pioneers' Tools, as an experiment, Regiments of Infantry will be supplied with Implements of the new pattern on making application to the Director General of Army Stores.

The number of Pioneers in each Regiment has been increased to thirteen, —that is, one Pioneer Corporal and one Pioneer per Company; and the distribution of the Implements between them is shown in the following Table:—

The whole of these Tools are of the improved patterns lately adopted for general Field Service, and in the event of their becoming broken or damaged on service, no difficulty will be experienced in replacing them at any Government Tool Store or Depôt.

It being important that the Pioneer, from the nature of his duties, should be as little as possible burthened on the march, he will no longer be armed with a Musket, but will carry instead a Saw-backed Sword, which will serve both as a weapon and a tool. The weight of arms and ammunition from which he is relieved by this arrangement will more than counterbalance that of the Tools, and will enable him without difficulty to carry his knapsack, &c., like any other Soldier.

* It is not necessary that the Corporal should carry this particular set of Tools, but, in dividing them amongst the Pioneers, each man should, if possible, carry some Tools with the use of which he is acquainted.

As the nature of a Pioneer Force depends entirely upon the efficiency of the individuals composing it, his Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief directs, that the practice which has prevailed in many Regiments of making the Pioneeers a refuge for old and worn out Soldiers shall cease.

On service, the Pioneer, if an active intelligent artificer, would be far more usefully employed in directing the labours of several other men than in working exclusively himself; and as by the present arrangement each Pioneer carries Tools for one or more additional men, a portion of the Force would, if competent, be always available in this capacity.

Commanding Officers of Regiments will therefore in future be careful to select as Pioneers able-bodied, active, intelligent Soldiers; and as it is highly important to render available some of the skilled labour which each Regiment possesses in its ranks, they should as far as possible be artificers and mechanics; the Corporal should, in addition, invariably be chosen for his superior intelligence.

The Trades from which Pioneers should be taken are principally, Carpenters, Smiths, Masons, Bricklayers or Engine Fitters; and there should be at least two Carpenters and a Smith amongst the Privates.

The mode of carrying the Tools is shown in the accompanying sketch, and is as follows:—

No. 1. The Shovel, Pick-axe, Bill-hook and Sword:—

The Shovel, being buttoned in its case, is suspended by the belt from the left shoulder, so as to hang a little in rear of the right hip, the handle being in rear of the arm. The knapsack is then put on, and the steadying strap, attached to the back of the shoulder belt, is passed above the lower sling of the knapsack, round the handle of the Shovel, either once or twice as may be convenient, and under the right arm to the front, where it is buckled on to a D. on the belt.

The Pick-axe, in its case, is carried at the "slope" on the right shoulder, the point to the front.

The Bill hook, in its case, is suspended by the waist-belt in rear of the left hip, close to

The Sword, which is in its front, and hanging down the side of the left leg.

No. 2. The Spade, Axe, Bill-hook and Sword:—

The Spade is worn exactly like the Shovel.

The Axe is carried on the right shoulder similarly to the Pick-axe, with the edge to the front.

The Bill-hook and Sword are worn in each case as has been explained.

No. 3. The Felling-axe, two Axes, Bill-hook and Sword.

The two Axes, in the case, are suspended by the belt over the left shoulder, and hung on the right hip rather to the front.

The Felling-axe, &c., as already explained.

No. 4. The Felling-axe, Saw, Small Axe, Bill-hook and Sword.
The Saw is worn like the two Axes on the right side.
The Axe, &c., as before explained.

No. 5. The Crow-bar is carried at the "slope," resting on the right shoulder, the point to the front.
The Bag with small Tools is supended at the right side, like the Saw and two Axes.

In every case the Soldier's waist-belt with the Sword-frog, supplied with the Tools, is worn over the belt from which the Tools are suspended, in order to steady them and keep them in their place.

Gauntlet Gloves and Aprons cease to form part of Pioneers' equipment.

Pioneers are to wear their beards and moustachios unshaven.

The Distribution of Tools between the Service and Depôt Companies is to be as follows:—

Service Companies.

4 Shovels, Pick-axes and Bill-hooks.
3 Spades, Felling-axes and Bill-hooks.
1 Felling-axe, Hand-axe, Saw and Bill-hook.

THE following decision by the Secretary of State for War is, by order of his Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief, promulgated for the information of the Officers of the Army:—

"All Officers having once paid their yearly subscription to a Garrison "Library will be free of any Library at the Stations to which they may "afterwards be removed during that year, upon the production of the "receipt of the Paymaster receiving the money."

Horse Guards, 19th November, 1856.

HAVERSACKS will, henceforth, be supplied to the Army generally, upon requisition to the Director General of Army Stores from each Regiment and Depôt, showing the numbers in possession, and also what are required to complete to the Establishment.

Officers commanding Regiments and Depôts will take steps for the completion of their Men with Haversacks accordingly.

Corps in Ireland being already in possession of Haversacks will retain them upon their removal from that country, instead of returning them into Store as heretofore.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to Officers commanding Regiments of Infantry at Home and Abroad.

General Number 235 — Arms

B.—82. — 13.

Horse Guards, 25th November, 1856.

IN consequence of its having been found that the practice of "snapping" (which was ordered by the Circular Memorandum of 25th September, 1855, to be discontinued on account of the injury caused thereby to the firelock) is of the utmost importance to the effectual carrying out of the position drill as prescribed by the Instruction of Musketry, the late Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, in concurrence with the Secretary of State for War, decided upon the adoption of Snap-caps of a pattern which has been for some time under trial at the School of Musketry, without any breakage of either cock, swivel, or any other part of the Rifles with which they have been used.

A number of these new Snap-caps being now ready, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge has entered into an arrangement with the War Department for their being issued to every Regiment and Depôt, at home and abroad, according to their establishment, and without the necessity of separate requisitions from Commanding Officers.

The Snap-caps will be attached to the Musket by a small chain or elastic band, and with every fresh issue, extra leathers, in the proportion of twenty per Company, will be supplied for the purpose of being fitted into the metal frame in lieu of others as they become worn out, an operation attended with no difficulty, and one which it is stated can be effected by any handy man in a Company.

In the event of a Soldier losing his Snap-cap, either wilfully or through neglect, the cost thereof as fixed by the War Department, viz. 3*d.* each, will have to be made good by him at his own expense.

By Command.
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to Officers commanding Regiments at Home and Abroad, and to General and other Officers commanding, for information.

General Number 236 — Retirement of Officers

A.—59. — 1.

Horse Guards, 26th November, 1856.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding in-Chief is pleased to direct that, upon forwarding to the Military Secretary the applications of Officers to retire from the Service by the sale of their Commissions, Commanding Officers will accompany such applications with a certificate under his own hand that the Officer has paid all regimental claims against him; and in the event of the existence of any non-liquidated regimental claims, the Officer applying to retire must transmit with his application his consent to the stoppage of the amount of such claims from the proceeds of the sale of his Commission, to be lodged in the hands of the Regimental Agents, for the liquidation of such unsettled regimental debts, upon the order of the Officer commanding.

In the event of the Officer commanding not having it in his power to satisfy himself that there are no regimental claims against such Officer, the Officer seeking to retire by the sale of his Commission is hereby required to leave such portion of the proceeds of the sale of his Commission in the Agents' hands, as may appear advisable to the Officer commanding, until such time as he shall have satisfied himself that all regimental claims have been settled, whereupon a statement to that effect to the Regimental Agents is to be their authority for paying the balance to the Officer in question.

By Command.

Adjutant-General.

Horse Guards, 4th December, 1856.

THE proposal of his Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief to establish a Military School for Music having received the support of all Officers commanding Regiments in the Service, measures will be adopted without delay to place the School in working order.

To meet the expenses connected therewith, Commanding Officers are requested to cause the sum of 5*l.*, to form a fund for the purchase of Instruments, &c., and the annual subscription of 8*l.* for the support of the Institution, to be paid into the hands of Messrs. Cox & Co. of Craig's Court, as soon as possible, to the credit of the Military Musical Fund.

It is hoped that the Institution will be ready to receive pupils on the 1st of January; of this, however, due notice will be given.

The building in which the School will be temporarily established is capable of accommodating 100 men; and each Regiment at home will, as a commencement, send to the Adjutant-General the names of two men, or one man and one enlisted boy or lad, for instructions as Musicians, Bugle-Majors or Trumpet-Majors; those intended to qualify for the two latter appointments being men who have already acquired some knowledge of their instruments; or should the Commanding Officer consider any man, from his musical knowledge and general intelligence, likely to make an efficient Leader, he may submit his name as one to be perfected as a Band Master.

It is indispensible that the candidates selected should be of exemplary character, that they have musical ability, and be capable of turning their instruction to good account, and that the boys or lads should have exhibited a musical aptitude.

Regulations for the conduct of the Institution are in course of preparation, and will be furnished to every Regiment and Corps in the Army as soon as they are completed.

This Memorandum is to be laid on the table at all Courts Martial, General, District or Garrison, for the information or guidance of the Court. The same course will be pursued with all Memoranda having reference to the procedure of Courts Martial.

In cases in which the above course of proceeding has not been followed, it has been ruled by the Judge Advocate General that the stoppages are illegal and cannot be rightly enforced; and the amount of such stoppages will be accordingly forthwith refunded to the men who are undergoing or who have undergone such stoppages.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

This Association has been established more than Twenty-seven Years, and has afforded the most beneficial advantages to the Nominees of a very numerous and highly respectable class of individuals, whose incomes terminate with their lives—viz. of Gentlemen connected with the Clerical, Legal, Medical, Naval, Military and other Professions, and Public and Private Offices.

The Association is enrolled under the Friendly Societies Acts, thereby avoiding the usual risks.

The Funded Capital is upwards of £284,000, entirely accumulated from subscriptions of the Members.

The Association has already distributed to the Nominees of Members more than £190,000. and the present payments to Annuitants exceed £19,000 per annum.

It is, therefore, strongly recommended to all persons desirous of not leaving their widows, children, relations or friends totally unprovided for, which may be so easily remedied by the very moderate Premiums of this Association.

To persons engaged in Trade, it offers this additional advantage, that the Annuity cannot be lost in case of Bankruptcy or other misfortune.

NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS

are placed on a separate and distinct Fund, by which no extra Premium is exacted, either in time of War or when on Foreign Service.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

No. 3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK £500,000.

THIS Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

This Association has been established more than Twenty-seven Years, and has afforded the most beneficial advantages to the Nominees of a very numerous and highly respectable class of individuals, whose incomes terminate with their lives—viz. of Gentlemen connected with the Clerical, Legal, Medical, Naval, Military and other Professions, and Public and Private Offices.

The Association is enrolled under the Friendly Societies Acts, thereby avoiding the usual risks.

The Funded Capital is upwards of £284,000, entirely accumulated from subscriptions of the Members.

The Association has already distributed to the Nominees of Members more than £190,000, and the present payments to Annuitants exceed £19,000 per annum.

It is, therefore, strongly recommended to all persons desirous of not leaving their widows, children, relations or friends totally unprovided for, which may be so easily remedied by the very moderate Premiums of this Association.

To persons engaged in Trade, it offers this additional advantage, that the Annuity cannot be lost in case of Bankruptcy or other misfortune.

NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS

are placed on a separate and distinct Fund, by which no extra Premium is exacted, either in time of War or when on Foreign Service.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

No. 3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK £500,000.

THIS Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

General Number 244 — A.—62.

Courts Martial — 12.

Horse Guards, 12th December, 1856.

COMMANDING Officers will remind Officers in charge of Companies of the Regulations of the Army regarding the advance of money to Pay-Serjeants, paragraph 95, page 136 :—

Embezzlement, &c. of public monies entrusted to Pay-Serjeants or other Non-commissioned Officers for the payment of the men of their Company.

Commanding Officers will not, in the cases stated in the margin, include in charges for embezzlement or fraudulent misapplication any amount above the sum required "day by day for the subsistence of the Non-commissioned Officers and Men."

By Command.
W. F. FORSTER,
Deputy-Adjutant-General.

Blacking — 1.

Horse Guards, 16th December, 1856.

A VERY pernicious system having prevailed in several Corps of the Men being permitted to use a composition called Jet in cleaning their Pouches, General Officers commanding Districts, Divisions and Brigades are requested to give their immediate attention to this subject, and to cause the description of Blacking mentioned in the Circular Memorandum of the 16th February, 1848, to be exclusively used for cleaning the Pouches.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

General Number 247 — Squad Bags

A.—64. — 4.

Horse Guards, 19th December, 1856.

Officers commanding Regiments are referred to the provisions of the Circular Memorandum of the 16th November, 1854 (copy annexed), which prescribe ten years as the period during which Squad Bags are expected to last, being kept in repair at the expense of the Regiment to which they are issued.

Squad Bags are provided to relieve a Soldier from carrying a complete kit in the field, on which occasions he should only have in his custody the service kit, the remainder being in the Squad Bag and left in the Regimental Store.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief cannot recommend the issue of new Squad Bags to replace those worn out within the prescribed period of ten years by having been left in the men's possession during the recent operations in the Crimea, and Commanding Officers will accordingly be pleased to abstain from forwarding applications to this effect, and to cause the Squad Bags to be repaired as effectually as possible.

By Command.
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

(Copy.)

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

Horse Guards, 16th November, 1854.

It having been decided that the articles of necessaries specified in the margin, and composing part of the authorized kit of the soldier, are to be carried on the march in a Squad Bag, each Bag containing twenty-five of these surplus kits, Officers commanding Regiments are directed to forward requisitions to the Adjutant-General for the number of Squad Bags required by their respective Corps, on the estimate of one Squad Bag for every twenty-five men authorized by their establishment. These Squad Bags will be provided and carried on the march at the public expense. They are expected to last at least ten years, and it is clearly to be understood they are to be kept in repair at the expense of the Regiment to which they are issued.

1 Shell Jacket.
1 Shirt.
1 pair Socks.
1 Towel.
2 Brushes, and such articles from Holdall as can be immediately dispensed with.

The Regimental Quarter Master will have charge of these Squad Bags, and will serve them out to each Company according to its effective strength, at the rate of one for every twenty-five men.

Officers commanding Regiments will cause periodical inspections to be made of the Squad Bags, and any damage done to them beyond fair wear and tear must be made good by the Squad to which the Bag belongs.

By Command.
(Signed) G. A. WETHERALL,
Deputy-Adjutant-General.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1855.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

No. 3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK £500,000.

THIS Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c.

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we, taking into our Royal consideration that there exists no means of adequately rewarding the individual gallant services either of Officers of the lower grades in our Naval and Military Service, or of Warrant and Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines, in our Navy, and Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers in our Army; and whereas the third class of our most Honourable Order of the Bath is limited, except in very rare cases, to the higher ranks of both Services, and the granting of medals, both in our Navy and Army, is only awarded for long service or meritorious conduct, rather than for bravery in action or distinction before an enemy, such cases alone excepted where a general medal is granted for a particular action or campaign, or a clasp added to the medal for some special engagement, in both of which cases all share equally in the boon, and those who by their valour have particularly signalised themselves remain undistinguished from their comrades; now, for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of rewarding individual instances of merit and valour, we have instituted and created, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, institute and create a new Naval and Military Decoration, which we are desirous should be highly prized and eagerly sought after by the Officers and Men of our Naval and Military Services, and are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following rules and ordinances for the government of the same, which shall from henceforth be inviolably observed and kept:—

Firstly. It is ordained, that the distinction shall be styled and designated "the Victoria Cross," and shall consist of a Maltese Cross of Bronze, with our Royal Crest in the centre, and underneath which an escroll, bearing this inscription, "For Valour."

Secondly. It is ordained, that the Cross shall be suspended from the left breast, by a blue riband for the Navy, and by a red riband for the Army.

Thirdly. It is ordained, that the names of those upon whom we may be pleased to confer the Decoration shall be published in the "London Gazette," and a registry thereof kept in the office of our Secretary of State for War.

Fourthly. It is ordained, that any one who, after having received the Cross, shall again perform an act of bravery, which, if he had not received such Cross, would have entitled him to it, such further act shall be recorded by a Bar attached to the riband by which the Cross is suspended, and for every additional act of bravery an additional Bar may be added.

Fifthly. It is ordained, that the Cross shall only be awarded to those Officers or men who have served us in the presence of the enemy, and shall have then performed some signal act of valour, or devotion to their country.

Digitized by Google

Sixthly. It is ordained, with a view to place all persons on a perfectly equal footing in relation to eligibility for the Decoration, that neither rank, nor long service, nor wounds, nor any other circumstance or condition whatsoever, save the merit of conspicuous bravery, shall be held to establish a sufficient claim to the honour.

Seventhly. It is ordained that the Decoration may be conferred on the spot where the act to be rewarded by the grant of such Decoration has been performed, under the following circumstances:—

I. When the Fleet or Army, in which such act has been performed, is under the eye and command of an Admiral or General Officer commanding the Forces.

II. Where the Naval or Military force is under the eye and command of an Admiral or Commodore commanding a squadron or detached naval force, or of a General commanding a corps, or division or brigade on a distinct and detached service, when such Admiral, Commodore, or General Officer shall have the power of conferring the Decoration on the spot, subject to confirmation by us.

Eighthly. It is ordained, where such act shall not have been performed in sight of a Commanding Officer as aforesaid, then the claimant for the honour shall prove the act to the satisfaction of the Captain or Officer commanding his ship, or to the Officer commanding the regiment to which the claimant belongs, and such Captain or such Commanding Officer shall report the same through the usual channel to the Admiral or Commodore commanding the force employed on the service, or to the Officer commanding the forces in the field, who shall call for such description and attestation of the act as he may think requisite, and on approval shall recommend the grant of the Decoration.

Ninthly. It is ordained that every person selected for the Cross, under rule seven, shall be publicly decorated before the naval or military force or body to which he belongs, and with which the act of bravery for which he is to be rewarded shall have been performed, and his name shall be recorded in a general order, together with the cause of his especial distinction.

Tenthly. It is ordained that every person selected under rule eight shall receive his Decoration as soon as possible, and his name shall likewise appear in a General Order as above required, such General Order to be issued by the naval or military commander of the forces employed on the service.

Eleventhly. It is ordained that the General Orders above referred to shall from time to time be transmitted to our Secretary of State for War, to be laid before us, and shall be by him registered.

Twelfthly. It is ordained that as cases may arise not falling within the rules above specified, or in which a claim, though well founded, may not have been established on the spot, we will, on the joint submission of our Secretary of State for War, and of our Commander in Chief of our Army, or on that of our Lord High Admiral, or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the case of the Navy, confer the Decoration, but never without conclusive proof of the performance of the act of bravery for which the claim is made.

Thirteenthly. It is ordained that, in the event of a gallant and daring act having been performed by a squadron, ship's company, a detached body of seamen and marines, not under fifty in number, or by a brigade, regiment, troop or company, in which the admiral, general or other officer commanding such forces, may deem that all are equally brave and distinguished, and that no special selection can be made by them: then in such case, the admiral, general, or other officer commanding, may direct that for any such body of seamen or marines, or for every troop or company of soldiers, one officer shall be selected by the officers engaged for the Decoration; and in like manner one petty officer or non-commissioned officer shall be selected by the petty officers and non-commissioned officers engaged; and two seamen or private soldiers or marines shall be selected by the seamen, or private soldiers, or marines, engaged respectively, for the Decoration; and the names of those selected shall be transmitted by the senior in command of the naval force, brigade, regiment, troop or company, to the admiral or general officer commanding, who shall in due manner confer the Decoration as if the acts were done under his own eye.

Fourteenthly. It is ordained that every warrant officer, petty officer, seaman or marine, or non-commissioned officer, or soldier, who shall have received the cross, shall from the date of the act by which the Decoration has been gained, be entitled to a special pension of ten pounds a year, and each additional bar conferred under rule four on such warrant or petty officers, or non-commissioned officers or men, shall carry with it an additional pension of five pounds per annum.

Fifteenthly. In order to make such additional provision as shall effectually preserve pure this most honourable distinction, it is ordained, that if any person on whom such distinction shall be conferred be convicted of treason, cowardice, felony or of any infamous crime, or if he be accused of any such offence, and doth not after a reasonable time surrender himself to be tried for the same, his name shall forthwith be erased from the registry of individuals upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, by an especial warrant under our royal sign manual, and the pension conferred under rule fourteen shall cease and determine from the date of such warrant. It is hereby further declared that we, our heirs and successors shall be the sole judges of the circumstance demanding such expulsion; moreover, we shall at all times have power to restore such persons as may at any time have been expelled, both to the enjoyment of the Decoration and Pensions.

Given at our court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-ninth of January, in the nineteenth year of our reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

By Her Majesty's command.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

General Number 250	Clothing	Equipments
A.—65.	14.	11.

Horse Guards, 2nd January, 1857.

In reminding Commanding Officers of Regiments that they are held responsible that, in the dress and equipment of their Regiments, nothing be adopted which is not sanctioned by Her Majesty's Regulations, or by special authority as an exception, his Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief is pleased to direct as follows:—

Forage Caps.—The Tuft of the men's Forage Cap is to be dark Blue for all Regiments of Infantry except Light Infantry and Rifle Regiments, which are to be of the same colour as the Forage Cap, viz. Green.

Chin Straps are to be worn: Peaks only to be used on the Stations prescribed by Regulation. The Forage Caps of Officers and Men of Light Infantry and Fusilier Regiments are to bear Arabic numerals, surmounted by a Bugle or Grenade, as the case may be—the Officers' in embroidery, the Men's in Brass, as by pattern lodged at the Army Clothing Department.

Knapsacks.—The Knapsacks of all Regiments are to have the numbers in Arabic numerals, 1¾ inches in height (according to accompanying pattern), painted in white, in the centre of the pack.

Light Infantry, Fusilier and Rifle Regiments are to have the Bugle or Grenade in white paint over the Number on the pack. This does not apply to Flank Companies.

Number Plates for the Knapsacks of every Regiment will be furnished by the Director-General of Army Clothing.

Review Order—Marching ditto.—It is to be distinctly understood that there are only two orders of equipment for General Parades, viz. 1st, Review Order—Full dress, but without Knapsacks; 2nd, Marching Order, when the full equipment of the Soldier is to be carried. The great coat folded at the back of the pack, and mess tin on the top, as shown in the illustration given in the Circular Memorandum dated Horse Guards, 3rd October, 1854. The upper edge of the Knapsack should be on a level with the lower seam of the collar of the coat.

Pouches.—The larger Pouch to hang about four fingers below the elbow, the small Pouch to be worn in front, on the right side.

Bayonet.—The Bayonet to hang on the left hip, and not too far to the front.

Chevrons.—Without special authority to the contrary, the Chevrons of Non-commissioned Officers are not to be worn on both arms, except in the cases sanctioned by the Queen's Regulations.

CIRCULAR, No. 13. (BARRACKS.)

[This Circular to be substituted for that of the same Date and Number previously issued, which is hereby cancelled, and should be returned to this Department.]

HOME STATIONS.

To Commanding Officers and Paymasters of Cavalry and Infantry Regiments or Battalions,—of Cavalry Depôts and Depôt and Provisional Battalions, and Officers commanding Artillery Districts or Battalions, and Barrack Masters at Home Stations.

War Department, Pall Mall, 1st September, 1856. 167 L 25c

1. It having been determined to increase the existing rates of Regimental Lodging Money, and to include them in one consolidated allowance with the commuted Fuel and Light allowance, the above Officers are hereby informed thereof, and that the following is the authorized scale of these combined allowances, to take effect on 1st October, 1856, in respect of claims for periods commencing on or after that day.

	Per diem s.	d.
Regimental Field Officers, if Commanding Regiments of Cavalry, Regiments or Battalions of Infantry, Artillery Districts, Battalions of Artillery, Cavalry Depôts, or Depôt or Provisional Battalions.	4	0
Other Regimental Field Officers	3	0
Captains	2	3
Subalterns	2	0

2. All special rates of Regimental Lodging Money heretofore granted are to cease from 1st October, 1856, whether to Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, or Men of the Royal Artillery or otherwise, and whether at Woolwich, Shoeburyness, Manchester, or elsewhere: the new rate of allowance assigned to the rank of "Other Regimental Field Officers" is to be applicable to the Deputy Inspectors General of Hospitals and Senior Surgeons of the late Ordnance Medical Corps; that assigned to Captains is to extend to Paymasters and Surgeons: also to Veterinary Surgeons of twenty years' standing; and that to Subalterns, to Veterinary Surgeons of less than twenty years' service, to Quarter Masters, Assistant Quarter Masters, Assistant Surgeons, and Probationary Veterinary Surgeons; the rates applicable to Adjutants, whether of Regiments or Depôt Battalions, and to Instructors and Assistant Instructors of Musketry, are those of their substantive Army or Regimental rank, but not Brevet rank; and whenever a claim of 4*s.* per day is made for a Regimental Field Officer Commanding as before stated, such fact must be shown against his name, and further that he was not in occupation of a room in barracks, as an office distinct from the orderly room.

3. These rates are to be claimed through Paymasters on forms of the description annexed, numbered 1, such claims being transmitted at the end of each month to the Accountant General, War Department, Pall Mall, London, and are to be confined to actual Regimental or Army rank (exclusive of brevet or acting ranks), and to such Officers as are actually present and doing duty with the Regiment, and necessarily living out of barracks for want of sufficient accommodation therein for all the Officers.

4. The attention of the Secretary of State for War has been drawn to the General Order, dated Office of Ordnance, 8th February, 1847, $\frac{S.G.}{9}$ and to other regulations affecting the grant of Lodging Allowances to Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, and his Lordship has decided that a due regard to the efficiency of the service and the welfare of individuals of all ranks require some modification of those Regulations.

5. Whenever, therefore, there may be the regulated accommodation in barracks for all the Officers of a Regiment, no Lodging Money is admissible, and those married Officers who in such case prefer, and are permitted to live out of barracks, must do so at their own expense as regards the rent of Lodgings, and can only be allowed to draw the commuted Fuel and Light allowance, sanctioned by the General Order, dated Office of Ordnance, 22nd March, 1844, $\frac{M.G.}{108}$. But when the barracks are insufficient for all the Officers, the choice of Living in Lodgings may be granted, to the extent of the deficient accommodation, to the Officers in the order of seniority, the Officers so selected receiving the Lodging Money of their respective Regimental ranks.

6. Married Officers who may have elected to live in Lodgings when there was sufficient accommodation for them within the barracks, and who are consequently not entitled to draw the Lodging allowance, shall not be precluded from receiving the said allowance at any future period, when the barracks may become full, and so long as they may continue so; and when vacant accommodation shall become available therein for a portion of the Officers who are in Lodgings, the Officers required to avail themselves thereof or to relinquish the Lodging allowance, shall be those of junior rank, unless the Commanding Officer shall deem it fit to recommend an exception thereto.

Digitized by Google

7. In regard to Non-commissioned Officers and Men, it is also to be clearly understood that when there is not sufficient accommodation in the barracks for the whole Regiment, the Lodging allowance applicable to the surplus numbers may be assigned to Staff Serjeants in preference to Troop or Company Serjeants, it being most essential for the discipline of Regiments that Serjeants of the latter description should live near the Men of their several Troops or Companies. The selection of the individual Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Men, who are to live out of barracks is to be made by the Commanding Officer, under such rules as may from time to time be laid down by the Commander-in-Chief, and concurred in by the Secretary of State for War, for the more efficient maintenance of discipline; but it is considered expedient that the Adjutant, one Medical Officer, and Serjeant Major, should live in barracks whenever practicable.

8. Paymasters will of course cease to claim, and Barrack Masters cease to pay, the commuted Fuel and Light allowance accruing due to Officers in receipt of Lodging Money on and after the 1st October, 1856, and heretofore payable on Form A. of the said General Order of 22nd March, 1844, $\frac{M.G.}{108}$, also the like allowances to Regimental Staff Serjeants of the 1st or 2nd class, agreeably to the Memorandum No. 3, from the Accountant General's Office of 26th September, 1855, and to Regimental Schoolmasters, whether of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, or 4th class, agreeably to clause 9 of the General Order of 31st January, 1856, $\frac{S.}{1856}$, and the Circular of 12th July, 1856, $\frac{B.B.}{3827}$, merging by an equivalent addition those allowances at the rate of 2*s.* 6*d.* per week per room, in the one for Lodging Money applicable to their rank, and claiming such combined allowances with those for Commissioned Officers on the form before referred to, numbered 1, showing invariably the particular rank of each Schoolmaster, and seeing, moreover, in respect of the Staff Serjeants of the 1st or 2nd class, that no acting ranks are admitted, nor any other grades than those specified in the Order of 5th June, 1844, $\frac{S.A.}{101}$, at page 186 of the Addenda of 1st May, 1846, to the Barrack Regulations of 1st August, 1838, and those only at the Head Quarters of Cavalry Regiments and of Regiments or Battalions of Infantry.

9. In cases where the £2 : 2*s.* per week, in lieu of Officers' Mess accommodation for the entire Regiment, or the 6*s.* per week, in lieu of Paymaster's Office, is sanctioned and claimed, the appropriate commuted Fuel and Light allowance throughout the year for the former, viz., 9*s.* per week for the winter months, from November to April, and 6*s.* per week during summer, from May to October, and for the latter, 2*s.* 6*d.* per week, during the said winter months, should be added thereto, thus making for these services, as in the case of Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers, one claim suffice for both allowances, and that chargeable by the Paymaster in the form before referred to, numbered 1; so much of the amount as relates to the hire of Mess accommodation being, as heretofore, supported by the stamped receipt of the owner of the premises.

10. Commanding Officers and Barrack Masters are in no case to include in the said annexed Form, numbered 1, the claims for Lodging Money, at the rate of 2*d.* per day, for the authorized number of married Soldiers permitted to live out of barracks, agreeably to the War Office Circular of 15th February, 1851, No. 1089, which claims are, as heretofore, to be paid by the Paymaster on W. O. Form, 213, and charged in his Regimental Pay List, but in the said annexed Form, numbered 1, are to be included the claims of the Non-commissioned Officers and Men at a Barrack Station, at 1*s.* 2*d.* per week, necessarily living out of barracks, not as a portion of such authorized number, but for want of accommodation therein, agreeably to the General Order, dated Office of Ordnance, 18th September, 1854, $\frac{CA}{167}$, provided the numbers of these claimants shall not exceed 12, otherwise the whole number so necessarily living out should be billeted on the Innkeepers or Inhabitants, to whom the billet allowance should be paid by the Paymaster, and charged in the usual way in his Regimental Pay List, it being understood that the said Lodging Money of 2*d.* per day to the authorized number of married Soldiers permissively living out of barracks, or 1*s.* 2*d.* per week to Non-commissioned Officers and Men necessarily living out for want of accommodation therein, or billet-money according to rank, includes the allowance in lieu of Fuel and Light.

11. The commuted Fuel and Light without Lodging Allowance, granted by the said General Order of 22nd March, 1844, $\frac{MG}{106}$, to Officers permitted to live out of barracks on the ground of being married, and henceforth payable to such Officers when the barracks are not full, will, in respect of allowances falling due between the 1st October and 31st December, 1856, be, as heretofore, paid by the Barrack Master on the Form A, but at one uniform rate of 2*s.* 6*d.* per week per room, whether in Great Britain or Ireland (the Fuel and Light allowances in the United Kingdom generally being hereby assimilated), such form being modified to meet the exclusion of Officers in receipt of Lodging Money.

12. After the 31st December, 1856, the commuted Fuel and Light Allowance is to be claimed for such last-named Officers on the Form annexed, numbered 2, not through the Barrack Master at the Station, but by the Paymaster, from the Accountant General, War Department, Pall Mall, in like manner with the combined Allowance in lieu of Lodgings and Fuel and Light.

13. Paymasters will make written applications to the Storekeeper of the War Department, Tower of London, for such supplies of forms as they may from time to time require, and Barrack Masters will, before certifying claims for the combined allowance, in lieu of Lodgings and Fuel and Light, or for Fuel and Light alone, satisfy themselves, by a careful examination of the same, that they are correct in all respects.

Deputy Secretary of War.

THE attention of the Storekeeper is called to the Order dated the 14th of October 1850, P. / 2764, which directed that all Copper Hoops, surplus the wants of the Station, should be sent to Purfleet.

The Storekeeper is therefore requested to forward all such Copper Hoops to Purfleet with the least possible delay, taking care that the Hoops are as little interfered with, as regards their shape, as is actually necessary (see Order of the 12th November, 1849, L. / 392), but put into packages with the number contained in each distinctly marked on the outside, in accordance with the Order of the 1st January, 1851, P. / 1606.

SIR,

IN consequence of a report from one of the Out-stations, respecting the state of the washing-tubs, water-pails, &c., belonging to this Department,

Your attention is called to the fact that all new coopers' ware, however well the staves may be seasoned, will shrink if kept in store for any length of time. You will, therefore, keep such articles in a store-room which is not too dry, taking care to drive well home, and properly tighten all the hoops, before making any issue to troops.

IN order to facilitate the examination of Store Ledgers, each article enumerated in the several Receipt and Issue Vouchers must, for the future, be plainly marked in the margin, with the number of the Ledger folio on which it is posted.

That this may be effectually carried out at Stations from which a Transcript Ledger is forwarded, differing, in the number of folios, from the original, it will be necessary that Store Accountants be careful to number the folios of the Transcript, not according to the consecutive pages thereof, but with reference to the paging of the Station Ledger; it being presumed that the pages marked in the Vouchers will be those of the Station Ledger inserted at the time the several Stores are posted.

CIRCULAR, No. 17. (INSPECTOR GENERAL OF FORTIFICATIONS.)

War Department, Pall Mall, 31st December, 1856. 97 79

THE Secretary of State for War wishes that the special attention of Officers of Engineers should be called to Section II., Article 19, of the Engineer Code, which forbids delivering to any individual, military or civil, testimonials of character.

It is the duty of every Officer to make periodical confidential reports of the character and conduct of persons under his orders, and it is his duty also to bring specially before the Inspector General of Fortifications, for the information of the Secretary of State, any cases of conduct specially deserving of praise or blame.

The Secretary of State will be entirely guided by these reports in promoting members of the Civil Staff from one situation to another, and in the case of persons leaving the Service, any individual desirous of employing them will always be at liberty to apply to the Secretary of State for an account of the character they bore while in the Service; but testimonials or certificates are in no case to be given into the hands of the persons to whom they relate.

Experience has proved that such testimonials are in most cases given with very little consideration: they are of no service to men of known high character, and are sometimes made use of in a very improper way.

CIRCULAR, No. 35. (Savings' Banks.)

General Number, 141. War Department, 13*th January*, 1857.

Sir,

Adverting to the Circular Memorandum dated Horse Guards, 8th ultimo, I am directed by the Secretary of State to acquaint you, that the Savings' Bank Accounts of each Depôt Battalion are to be rendered to this Department annually, in the form of one consolidated account.

The Savings' Bank Accounts of a Regimental Depôt, transferred from one Depôt Battalion to another, are, up to the date of transfer, to form part of the consolidated account of that Depôt Battalion from which the Regimental Depôt is transferred, and the balance then due to each Depositor is to be entered in that account as a "transfer given." A certified list of such balances, showing in each case the amount of "Interest due, but not yet added to Principal," will be furnished by the Savings' Banks Committee of the Depôt Battalion from which the Regimental Depôt is transferred to the Officer commanding the Depôt Battalion to which the Regimental Depôt is to be attached.

This list will be a sufficient authority for opening fresh accounts with the several Depositors from the date of transfer, and should be annexed as a voucher to the consolidated account, in which the balances are taken up as "transfers received."

A separate transfer statement for each Depositor will not, therefore, in such cases be required, but the greatest care should be taken to show distinctly on the face of the list alluded to what balances are not payable until discharge, such as gratuities, &c.

When a Regimental Depôt which has been managing its own Savings' Bank business joins a Depôt Battalion, the Officer commanding the Depôt is immediately to render to this Department his final Savings' Bank Account made up to the date of junction, and to furnish the Savings' Bank Committee of the Depôt Battalion with a list precisely similar to that prescribed on transfer from one Depôt Battalion to another.

Copies of Savings' Banks Forms* applicable to the service of Depôt Battalions, and of which a supply can be obtained on requisition from this Department, are annexed.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
B. HAWES.

To Officers commanding Depôt Battalions.

His Royal Highness will hold Commanding Officers responsible that the returns prescribed by regulation are regularly furnished.

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

War Office, 24th February, 1857.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of The Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Men of her Majesty's Navy and Marines, and Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men of her Majesty's Army, who have been recommended to her Majesty for that Decoration, in accordance with the rules laid down in her Majesty's Warrant of the 29th of January, 1856, on account of acts of bravery performed by them before the enemy during the late War, as recorded against their several names, viz.:—

ARMY.

2 Drs.—Serjeant Major (No. 774) JOHN GRIEVE.

Saved the life of an Officer in the Heavy Cavalry Charge at Balaklava, who was surrounded by Russian Cavalry, by his gallant conduct in riding up to his rescue and cutting off the head of one Russian, disabling and dispersing the others.

4 Lt. Drs.—Private (No. 635) SAMUEL PARKES.

In the charge of the Light Cavalry Brigade at Balaklava, Trumpet-Major Crawford's horse fell, and dismounted him, and he lost his sword; he was attacked by two Cossacks, when Private Samuel Parkes (whose horse had been shot) saved his life, by placing himself between them and the Trumpet-Major, and drove them away by his sword. In attempting to follow the Light Cavalry Brigade in the retreat, they were attacked by six Russians, whom Parkes kept at bay, and retired slowly, fighting, and defending the Trumpet-Major for some time, until deprived of his sword by a shot.

(Late) 11 Huss.—Lieutenant ALEXANDER ROBERT DUNN.

For having in the Light Cavalry Charge on the 25th October, 1854, saved the life of Serjeant-Major Beatley, 11th Hussars, by cutting down two or three Russian Lancers who were attacking him from the rear, and afterwards cutting down a Russian Hussar who was attacking Private Levett, 11th Hussars.

17 Lanc.—Troop Serjeant Major JOHN BERRYMAN.

Served with his Regiment the whole of the War, was present at the Battle of the Alma, and also engaged in the pursuit at Mackenzie's Farm, where he succeeded in capturing three Russian prisoners, when they were within reach of their own guns. Was present and charged at the Battle of Balaklava, where, his horse being shot under him, he stopped on the field with a wounded Officer (Captain Webb) amidst a shower of shot and shell, although repeatedly told by that Officer to consult his own safety, and leave him, but he refused to do so, and, on Serjeant John Farrell coming by, with his assistance carried Captain Webb out of range of the guns. He has also a Clasp for Inkerman.

Land Trans. Corps (late Roy. Art.).—Captain Andrew Henry.
For defending the guns of his battery against overwhelming numbers of the enemy at the Battle of Inkerman, and continuing to do so until he had received twelve bayonet wounds. He was at the time Serjeant Major of G. Battery, 2nd Division.

Roy. Art.—Bt. Lieut. Col. Matthew Charles Dixon.
On the 17th April, 1855, about 2 P.M., when the battery he commanded was blown up by a shell from the enemy, which burst in the magazine, destroyed the parapets, killed and wounded ten men, disabled five guns, and covered a sixth with earth; for most gallantly re-opening fire with the remaining gun before the enemy had ceased cheering from their parapets (on which they had mounted) and fighting it until sunset, despite the heavy concentrated fire of the enemy's batteries, and the ruined state of his own.

Roy. Art.—Gunner and Driver Thomas Arthur.
When in charge of the magazine in one of the left advanced Batteries of the Right Attack on the 7th June, 1855, when the Quarries were taken, he, of his own accord, carried barrels of Infantry Ammunition for the 7th Fusiliers several times during the evening across the open. Volunteered for, and formed one of the spiking party of Artillery at the assault on the Redan on the 18th June, 1855.

Roy. Eng.—Lieutenant Gerald Graham.
Determined gallantry at the head of a Ladder Party, at the assault of the Redan, on the 18th June, 1855. Devoted heroism in sallying out of the trenches on numerous occasions, and bringing in wounded Officers and Men.

Roy Eng.—Lieutenant D. Lennox.
Cool and gallant conduct in establishing a lodgment in Tryon's Rifle Pit, and assisting to repel the assaults of the enemy. This brilliant operation drew forth a special order from General Canrobert.

Roy. Eng.—Corporal (No. 997) John Ross.
Distinguished conduct on the 21st July, 1855, in connecting the 4th Parallel Right Attack with an old Russian Rifle Pit in front. Extremely creditable conduct on the 23rd August, 1855, in charge of the advance from the 5th Parallel Right Attack on the Redan, in placing and filling 25 gabions under a very heavy fire, whilst annoyed by the presence of light balls. Intrepid and devoted conduct in creeping to the Redan in the night of the 8th September, 1855, and reporting its evacuation, on which its occupation by the English took place.

Roy. Eng.—Corporal (No. 1078) William J. Lendrim.
Intrepidity—getting on the top of a Magazine, and extinguishing sand-bags which were burning, and making good the breach under fire, on the 11th April, 1855. For courage and praiseworthy example in superintending 150 French Chasseurs, on the 14th February, 1855, in building No. 9 Battery, Left Attack, and replacing the whole of the capsized gabions under a heavy fire. Was one of four volunteers for destroying the farthest Rifle Pit on the 20th April.

Roy. Eng.—Sapper (No. 854) JOHN PERIE.

Conspicuous valour in leading the Sailors with the ladders to the storming of the Redan, on the 18th June, 1855. He was invaluable on that day. Devoted conduct in rescuing a wounded man from the open, although he himself had just previously been wounded by a bullet in the side.

Gren. Gds.—Bt Maj. Sir CHARLES RUSSELL, Bart.

Offered to dislodge a party of Russians from the Sand-bag Battery, if any one would follow him; Serjeant Norman, Privates Anthony Palmer, and Bailey (who was killed) volunteered the first. The attack succeeded.

Gren. Gds. 3rd Batt.—Private (No. 3571) ANTHONY PALMER.

Present when the charge was made in defence of the Colours, and also charged singly upon the enemy, as witnessed by Sir C. Russell; is said to have saved Sir C. Russell's life.

Gren. Gds. 3rd Bat.—Serjeant (No. 5872) ALFRED ABLETT.

On the 2nd September, 1855, seeing a shell fall in the centre of a number of Ammunition-cases and Powder, he instantly seized and threw it outside the trench; it burst as it touched the ground.

Coldst. Gds.—Bt. Maj. GERALD LITTLEHALES GOODLAKE.

For distinguished gallantry whilst in command of the sharpshooters furnished by the Coldstream Guards, on the 28th October, 1854, on the occasion of "the powerful sortie on the 2nd Division," when he held the Windmill Ravine, below the Picquet House, against a much larger force of the enemy. The party of sharpshooters then under his command killed thirty-eight (one an officer), and took three prisoners of the enemy (of the latter, one an officer), Major Goodlake being the sole Officer in command. Also, for distinguished gallantry on the occasion of the surprise of a picquet of the enemy, in November, at the bottom of the Windwill Ravine, by the sharpshooters under his sole leading and command, when the knapsacks and rifles of the enemy's party fell into his hands.

Coldst. Gds.—Private (No. 3968) WILLIAM STANLOCK.

For having volunteered, when employed as one of the sharpshooters in October, 1854, for reconnoitring purposes, to crawl up within six yards of a Russian sentry, and so enabled the Officer in command to effect a surprise; Private Stanlock having been warned beforehand of the imminent risk which he would run in the adventure.

Coldst. Gds.—Private (No. 4787) GEORGE STRONG.

At Inkerman, in a most trying moment, he, with a few men, charged a party of Russians, driving them back, and running one through the body himself.

On the 11th August, 1855, before Sebastopol, for leaving the most advanced trench, and assisting to carry in a soldier of the 9th Regiment, who lay severely wounded and unable to move. This gallant and humane act was performed under a very heavy fire from the enemy.

3 F.—Bt. Lieut. Col. Frederick Maude.
For conspicuous and most devoted bravery on the 8th September, 1855, when in command of the Covering and Ladder Party of the 2nd Division, on the assault of the Redan, to which he gallantly led his men. Having entered the Redan, he, with only nine or ten men, held a position between traverses, and only retired when all hope of support was at an end, himself dangerously wounded.

3 F.—Private (No. 2649) John Connors.
Distinguished himself most conspicuously at the assault on the Redan, 8th September 1855, in personal conflict with the Russians: rescued an Officer of the 30th Regiment, who was surrounded by Russians, by shooting one and bayonetting another, and was observed, inside the Redan, in personal combat with the Russians for some time. Was selected by his Company for the French War Medal.

Private Mathew Hughes, 7th Royal Fusiliers, was noticed by Colonel Campbell, 90th Light Infantry, on the 7th June, 1855, at the storming of the Quarries, for twice going for ammunition, under a heavy fire, across the open ground; he also went to the front and brought in Private John Hampton, who was lying severely wounded; and on the 18th June, 1855, he volunteered to bring in Lieutenant Hobson, 7th Royal Fusiliers, who was lying severely wounded, and in the act of doing so was severely wounded himself.

On the night of the 19th December, 1854, he was placed on single sentry some distance in front of the advanced sentries of an outlying picquet in the White Horse Ravine, a post of much danger, and requiring great vigilance: the Russian picquet was posted about 300 yards in his front; three Russian soldiers advanced, under cover of the brushwood, for the purpose of reconnoitring. Private William Norman, single-handed, took two of them prisoners, without alarming the Russian picquet.

He, moreover, succeeded to the command of that gallant Regiment which he brought out of action; all his Senior Officers having been killed or wounded.

23 F.—Lieutenant LUKE O'CONNOR.
Was one of the centre Serjeants at the Battle of the Alma, and advanced between the Officers, carrying the colours. When near the redoubt, Lieutenant Anstruther, who was carrying a colour, was mortally wounded, and he was shot in the breast at the same time, and fell; but, recovering himself, snatched up the colour from the ground, and continued to carry it till the end of the action, although urged by Captain Granville to relinquish it, and go to the rear, on account of his wound; was recommended for, and received his commission, for his services at the Alma. Also behaved with great gallantry at the assault on the Redan, 8th September, 1855, where he was shot through both thighs.

23 F.—Corporal (No. 2945) ROBERT SHIELDS.

Volunteered as sharpshooter at the commencement of the siege, and was in charge of the party of the 44th Regiment; was always vigilant and active, and signalised himself on the 20th October, 1854, when one of his party, Private John Keane, 44th Regiment, was dangerously wounded in the Woronzoff Road, at the time the sharpshooters were repulsed from the Quarries by overwhelming numbers. Serjeant M'Wheeney, on his return, took the wounded man on his back, and brought him to a place of safety. This was under a very heavy fire. He was also the means of saving the life of Corporal Courtney. This man was one of the sharpshooters, and was severely wounded in the head, 5th December, 1854. Serjeant M'Wheeney brought him from under fire, and dug up a slight cover with his bayonet, where the two remained until dark, when they retired. For distinguished conduct on the night of the 4th August, 1855, when in command of a working party in the advanced trenches in front of the Quarries, in encouraging and inciting his men, by his example, to work under a dreadful fire; and, when there was some hesitation shown, in consequence of the severity of the fire, going into the open, and working with pick and shovel—thus showing the best possible example to the men. In the words of one of them, "There was not another Officer in the British Army who would have done what Major Elton did that night." In the month of March, 1855, Major Elton volunteered, with a small party of men, to drive off a body of Russians who were destroying one of our new detached works, and succeeded in doing so, taking prisoner one of the enemy with his own hands. On the night of the 7th June, 1855, Major Elton was the first of his party to leave our trenches leading his men; when in the Quarries, he several times rallied his men around him.

He was conspicuous on this occasion for his gallantry and daring conduct.

68 F.—Private John Byrne.

At the Battle of Inkerman, when the Regiment was ordered to retire, Private John Byrne went back towards the enemy, and, at risk of his own life, brought in a wounded soldier, under fire. On the 11th May, 1855, he bravely engaged in a hand to hand contest with one of the enemy on the parapet of the work he was defending,—prevented the entrance of the enemy, killed his antagonist, and captured his arms.

77 F.—Serjeant (No. 2600) John Park.

For conspicuous bravery at the Battles of Alma and Inkerman. Highly distinguished at the taking of the Russian Rifle Pits, on the night of the 19th April, 1855. 97 F.—Serjeant JOHN COLEMAN.
Conspicuous for great coolness and bravery on the night of the 30th August, 1855, when the enemy attacked a "New Sap" and drove the working party in; he remained in the open, perfectly exposed to the enemy's rifle pits, until all around him had been killed or wounded. ROYAL MARINES.

Lieutenant GEORGE DARE DOWELL, R. M. A.

An explosion having occurred in one of the rocket-boats of the "Arrogant," during the attack on some forts near Viborg, Lieutenant Dowell (who was on board the "Ruby" gunboat, while his own boat was receiving a supply of rockets) was the first to jump into the quarter-boat of the "Ruby," and with three volunteers, himself pulling the stroke-oar, proceeded instantly, under a heavy fire of grape and musketry, to the assistance of the cutter's crew. The Russians endeavoured to prevent his object of saving the men and boat, but Lieutenant Dowell succeeded in taking up three of the boat's crew and placing them on board the "Ruby;" and, on his returning to the spot, was mainly instrumental in keeping afloat and bringing off the sinking cutter. (Despatch from Rear-Admiral Honourable Sir R. S. Dundas, 17th July, 1855, and Letter from Colonel Wesley, Deputy Adjutant-General of Royal Marines.)

MEMORANDUM.

ARTIFICIAL ARMS AND LEGS.

THE Lords and others Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital having, at the suggestion and recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, made Arrangements for the supply of Artificial Arms (constructed upon an improved principle) and of Artificial Legs (in imitation of the natural leg, both as to form and motion) to those Commissioned Officers who have been wounded in the Service, whose means may not enable them to provide themselves with more expensive contrivances,—it is hereby notified, that such Officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this benefit, and whose cases may come within the above regulation, should address their applications upon the subject to the Secretary of Chelsea Hospital. It is, however, to be clearly understood, that, as this is intended to be a boon to Officers of the above description, no pecuniary allowance in lieu can be granted to Officers who may prefer providing themselves with other substitutes for limbs.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.
If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.
A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.
When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's Licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.
Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c.

ORDNANCE.—STORE DEPARTMENT.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS it is expedient that various alterations should be made in the constitution and emoluments of that portion of the Civil Establishment of our Ordnance which now forms the Store Branch attached to our War Office at Home and Foreign Stations, under the orders of our Secretary of State for War, and is governed by the Warrant of our predecessor George the Fourth, dated 19th December, 1825:

We do hereby annul that portion of the Civil Establishment of our Ordnance aforesaid, and approve of the Establishment hereunto annexed (Schedule A.) for the Military Store Service of our War Office, as well as the Regulations C, detailing the conditions upon which the salaries and emoluments set forth in Schedules A. and B. are to be received.

And whereas certain of our Civil Officers enjoy under former regulations and warrants higher salaries and allowances than those allotted to the classes in which they will serve in the first instance under this our Warrant, it is our will and pleasure that the same shall continue to be received on the conditions specified in the Regulations C.

And we hereby declare that it is not our intention that the claims which certain of our Civil Officers possess in respect to pensions for their widows, under the 3rd clause of the Warrant of our predecessor George the Fourth, dated 19th December, 1825, shall in any manner be annulled or affected by this our present Warrant.

And we do further direct, that in any special cases not provided for by this our Warrant, our Secretary of State for War for the time being may grant such emoluments as the circumstances may justify, the consent thereto of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury being previously obtained.

We do likewise empower our Secretary of State for War for the time being to make such alterations and revisions in the Establishments constituted by this our Warrant, or to increase the same (with the sanction of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury) to such extent as from time to time may be expedient for the Public Service.

Given at our Court of St. James's, this twenty-eighth day of February, 1857, in the twentieth year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

PANMURE.

Schedule C.

General Regulations for the Government of the Military Storekeeper's Service at Home and Abroad.

Art. 1. The members of the Store Department of the War Office at Home and Foreign Stations will form, from 1st January, 1857, a general body divided into six classes, with the titles relative military rank, salaries and allowances described in the Schedules A. and B. annexed, subject to the conditions hereafter mentioned in Articles 4 to 17, and every Officer will be liable to removal from one station to another, as the Public Service may require.

Art. 2. The position of each Officer in the new classification has been determined by the following considerations:—1st. The former grade (i. e. of Storekeeper, Deputy Storekeeper, or Clerk), the class in such grade of the Officer, and the date of his appointment thereto; and, 2ndly, the mutual relation between Officers of the different grades and classes, in salary, responsibility, services and personal qualifications.

Art. 3. It must be distinctly understood by every member of the Service that his position in his class thus determined confers on him no claim to promotion as a consequence of that position. Due weight will be given to the claims of Officers on the score of long and faithful service, but the primary ground of advancement in the Service will be personal merit, as evinced by zeal, ability, and general good conduct.

Art. 4. The new scales and the annual increases of salary will come into operation from the 1st January, 1857, in the following cases:—

Where the maximum of the class in which an officer is placed, under the new scheme, is equal to or exceeds that attached to his present office, he will proceed to the new maximum from his present actual salary, by the increase of the new class, provided one year at least has elapsed since the date of his last increase.

Art. 5. If an Officer's actual salary at the time of promotion be equal to or higher than the minimum of the class into which he shall be promoted, the increase of that class will be given at once.

Art. 6. All Officers of the Establishment who had served upon the minimum or fixed salary one year or upwards on 1st January, 1857, will be entitled to the increase of their class from that date.

Art. 7. The salaries of Officers upon first appointment to the Service will commence as follows:

If appointed to a Home Station, from the date of joining duty.

If appointed to a Foreign Station, from the date of embarkation.

Art. 8. No increase (except that mentioned in Article 5) will be given without the production of the certificates, of which Forms (D) are annexed.

Art. 9. The allowances of the new scheme will, as regards Officers now in the Service, take effect only when they shall be moved. All persons henceforth brought into the Service (and certain Officers lately appointed in whose cases specific reference was made to the new scheme at the time of appointment), will be at once subject to all the terms and conditions of the new scheme.

ART. 10. The Foreign Service allowance will be drawn by Officers ordered from Home on Foreign Service from the date of embarkation until the date of disembarkation on returning to the United Kingdom; provided, of course, that they remain on active service during the whole of such period. Officers now at Foreign Stations will, when moved to another Foreign Station, draw this allowance from the date of leaving their present stations. Officers at Foreign Stations returning to England, or proceeding to any other country on the recommendation of a Medical Board, for the benefit of their health, will draw the allowance to the date of disembarkation, provided they shall have been previously entitled to the same before leaving their stations. Officers going on leave of absence on private affairs will cease to draw the allowance from the day of leaving the station until the date of rejoining it.

ART. 11. The tropical allowance will be granted at the stations enumerated in Schedule B., and it will be drawn from the date of arriving at, to that of leaving the station.

ART. 12. All local allowances not specifically mentioned in these regulations will commence and cease as in Article 11, except in those allowances dependent upon the performance of any duty, the issue whereof will be limited to the time such duty is actually performed.

ART. 13. The allowance for house rent on Home Service will commence at the date of disembarkation from Foreign Service, provided the Officer proceeds at once to the Home Station to which he shall have been appointed; if he goes on leave before joining, the allowance will commence when he joins duty. This latter rule will also apply in cases of first appointment.

An Officer in receipt of house rent at a Home Station will draw it when ordered on Foreign Service up to the date of embarkation.

ART. 14. Those Officers who now enjoy under former regulations higher rank, scales of salary, and emoluments than are allotted to their new class, will continue to hold them as follows:—

The rank and scale of salary until by promotion they shall have arrived at equivalent rank and salary in the new scheme,—the climate pay of their present station as long as they serve there,—and the house rent at home as long as they serve at their present stations.

ART. 15. Officers granted leave of absence upon the recommendation of a Medical Board, or on private affairs, will not be entitled to draw full salary as a matter of course during the whole of such absence, but will be liable to be placed upon the following proportion of salary:—

In cases of ten years' service and upwards, on two-thirds pay.

Of less than ten years', on half pay.

The dates from which these rates shall commence will be determined according to the merits of each case; but in no instance will these proportions of salary be continued beyond twelve months from the date of the Officer landing in England, or (if serving there) beyond twelve months from the date of his ceasing to do duty.

Officers who shall have been removed from any station for the advantage of the Service, and are waiting until a new station can be allotted to them, will, at the expiration of a month from the time they disembark from Foreign Service, or cease to do duty (if serving in the United Kingdom) be placed upon two-thirds or half salary, according to their service, for a period not exceeding three months.

ART. 16. At the expiration of the dates specified in the preceding Article, all Officers, if not actively employed, will be disposed of by pension, permanent or temporary, or if not entitled to pension, will be merely noted for re-employment as at present.

ART. 17. In case of the death, removal or absence of the Superior Officer at any station, the Officer temporarily acting will be entitled to draw the local allowances of his Superior until relieved.

CIRCULAR, No. 34. (Inspector General of Fortifications.)

War Department, Pall Mall, 1st January, 1857. $\frac{148}{307}$

The change pointed out in the Circular Order of the 5th June last $\frac{240}{4}$, has rendered a revision necessary of that part of the Engineer Code which relates to the charge of Lands, Works and Buildings, viz., Section VI. That section has accordingly been revised, and the following Instructions are to be substituted for those which have been in force till now. A form of the Terrier alluded to in paragraphs 12 and 13 will be supplied hereafter.

Sect. VI.—Lands, Works and Buildings.

1. Under the Order in Council of the 5th June, 1856, $\frac{240}{4}$ the Inspector-General of Fortifications is charged with the conservation of all lands granted or used for military purposes; and he, and the Officers under his orders, will be held responsible for any unauthorized or unreported encroachments upon the Government property. The District Commanding Royal Engineers will, therefore, exercise the same care of the lands of the department as was formerly exercised by themselves and the respective Officers conjointly.

The Storekeeper, or other Officer acting as Accountant of the War Department, is to continue to receive all rents and make all payments that may be required, and render his account as he has hitherto done, the Commanding Royal Engineer furnishing him with all the information that may be required.

2. Perambulation of Boundaries.] The Commanding Engineer, or an Engineer Officer named by him, and a Clerk of Works, will annually, at the time when the inspection of the fortifications and buildings at the station takes place, perambulate the boundary lines of all property of the War Department, and use their endeavours to remove all unauthorized encroachments, as well as to prevent any further trespass being made.

3. An express permission from the Secretary of State for War is indispensable before any encroachment or trespass is allowed to obtain, even under an annual acknowledgment. And, as such permission will not be granted except in cases of very peculiar character, all applications which are not of such a character must be discouraged.

4. Whenever the Secretary of State for War shall see fit to give permission for an encroachment being made, the person to whom such permission is granted will be required to enter into an engagement to withdraw the encroachment immediately upon being called upon to do so, and to sign the Agreement in the Book of Encroachments, as required by the Circular of 31st May, 1847, $\frac{O}{1036}$. The permission will specify exactly the nature and extent of the encroachments, and the amount of the acknowledgment to be required, which must be regularly and punctually paid to the Storekeeper or the Barrack-Master, or other Officer acting as Accountant of the War Department, as the case may be (vide Circular, 2nd April, 1832, $\frac{E}{259}$), and in failure of which the permission will be considered void, as it will be also in the event of the party becoming insolvent.

5. The time limited for the duration of an encroachment cannot be exceeded without a fresh permission having been obtained from the Secretary of State for War; nor can the permission which has been granted to any individual be transferred, or be continued, to another, unless an express sanction for that purpose shall have been given.

6. Should any difficulty occur in the removal of encroachments which may make a legal opinion necessary, the officers making the perambulation should apply to some profes-ional man for assistance, and report the result to the Inspector-General of Fortifications.

7. All roads belonging to the War Department, and over which a passage to the public may be admitted as a convenience, are to be closed for 24 hours on the day of making the annual perambulation; and registry thereof is to be made, in order that the right of the War Department may be preserved.

8. If there are not officers of all the above descriptions at the Station the duty is to be performed by such of them as may be present.

9. The Commanding Engineer is immediately to report when any trespass or obstruction to the defences first occurs, especially all cases that are contrary to the instructions of the Royal Warrant of 1778.

10. Appendix No. 11, Engineer Code.] The Annual Reports of the Perambulation of the Boundaries of the War Department Property are to be made according to the Form Appendix No. 11 of the Engineer Code. On every point on which a decision has been already obtained, the date of such decision is to be quoted in its proper column, together with the result, so that unnecessary explanation may be obviated. The Report is to contain all the information required, unaccompanied by a letter of explanation, and is to be addressed to the Inspector General of Fortifications.

11. Plans of Lands and Buildings.] Commanding Engineers are to cause a set of Perambulation Plans to be arranged or compiled from the most perfect authorities, showing the situation of each Boundary Mark, and describing the several boundaries conformably with the legal conveyances or titles, under which the land is held. These plans are to be verified and signed by the Commanding Engineer, and are to be produced, for the guidance of the officers, at each perambulation.

12. It will be the duty of Commanding Royal Engineers to have in their Office a Terrier or complete statement of all the property of the War Department, within their respective districts, specifying its extent, situation, and tenure, whether freehold or leasehold, and if the latter, of the payments r conditions under which it is held; this statement to include lands, houses, rights of way, water power, and all other property of every description.

13. They will make such alterations or additions to the Plans and Terrier as may from time to time be necessary owing to sales or purchases of property by the War Department; and they will suggest to the Inspector-General of Fortifications such means as may occur to them of increasing the revenue derived from the property of the War Department.

14. As soon as possible after the purchase of any lands or buildings, or the alteration of boundaries, the Commanding Engineer will cause proper Plans to be prepared, and transmitted to the Inspector-General of Fortifications, to be deposited in his Office as Records, especial care being taken to show the boundary stones, or other marks, and to distinguish the boundary, by an edging of lake, within the outer lines of the walls or fences, or within the dotted lines where there are no walls or fences, so as accurately to define the extreme limits of the War Department property, it being known that, practically, the boundary wall, or fence, as it may be called, does not always show the legal extent of ownership.

15. Proceedings of any parties affecting War Department Property.] In all proceedings, whether depending upon Parliament, the Magistracy or any other authority which may be instituted for local purposes, and which may affect, or can in any way be likely to affect, or interfere with War Department property and interests, the Secretary of State for War will hold the Officers, or others, both military and civil, who may be stationed at or in the vicinity of the place to which those proceedings may have reference, responsible to him to report the nature of the case, be it what it may, the moment it shall become known to them, generally or individually, so that the Solicitor of the War Department may be instructed to watch and to oppose the measures in contemplation, should the interest of the Public Service require proceedings to be taken thereon.

16. Charge of Works.] The charge of the works, and the disposal of the grass thereon, at all fortified places are under the dominion of the War Department; and with reference to the provisions of the Royal Warrant, of 1st September, 1778, the Secretary of State for War holds the Inspector-General of Fortifications and his officers responsible, that no person shall be permitted to plough on any ground or covered ways, ditches or outworks surrounding or attached to War Department property; that no grazing of cattle, no planting of gardens in bastions or outworks, no erection of any sort of buildings is permitted, except by the sanction of the Secretary of State for War.

At such stations where grass is grown, the usual regulations as to periodical cuttings, and the making the same into hay, should be strictly observed.

17. Plans and models of works.] Engineer Officers will take care that no person whatever not belonging to the Department shall be allowed to make a model or plan of any work of defence, or any part of one; that no officer or other person in the employment of the Department, shall be allowed to make any such model or plan without the permission of the Commanding Royal Engineer at the Station, who, in giving his sanction is immediately to report the circumstance to the Inspector-General of Fortifications; that, when a model or plan is made under such permission, it is not to become the property of the person by whom it is constructed, but is to be deposited in the office of the Commanding Royal Engineer, or be forwarded to Woolwich if it be deemed worthy of a place in the Royal Military Repository; in this latter case it will be subsequently determined whether any reward shall be given to the individual.

18. Commanding Officers of Artillery, at Home and Abroad, may have such reference as the Service may require, to the plans and maps relating to their command in charge of Commanding Royal Engineers; and also be permitted to measure such distances as may be useful to the Service; but not to copy any part of them without due authority, under the existing Regulations.

19. No building to be permitted within 600 yards of works.] Instructions having been given relative to the inexpediency of alienating or granting building leases of lands in the Colonies situated in the vicinity of Military Works, Barracks, Magazines or Military Establishments, without a previous reference to the War Department, stating at the same time, that 600 yards should be the distance within which it would be advisable not to permit the erection of any buildings in the neighbourhood of works of fortification, Commanding Engineers will be careful to report to the Inspector-General of Fortifications upon all occasions when any deviation herefrom may take place.

In determining the application of this principle at each particular Station it is desirable that, besides the certain radius above described, within which no building whatsoever shall be constructed without sanction as aforesaid, a special prohibition should also be established, of a similar nature, with reference to the erection of buildings, even beyond the radius above alluded to, upon commanding heights, or in other situations which particular local circumstances might render especially prejudicial to the military works.

20. Conveyances.] In all purchases of lands in the Colonies by the War Department the conveyance is to be made to "The Secretary of State for War, for and on behalf of her Majesty her Heirs and Successors, for the service of the War Department, or such other public service or services as her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall from time to time, by any Order in Council, be pleased to direct;" and at Foreign Stations the Commanding Royal Engineer will be furnished with a power of attorney to sign leases. At Home Stations the leases will, when the terms of them are approved, be concluded direct between the person whose tender has been accepted and the Solicitor of the War Department, and will receive the signature of the Secretary of State.

21. Possession and occupation of War Department Property.] No Officer of Engineers will in future take upon himself to grant either temporary or permanent possession of any part of the War Department property whatever, without being expressly permitted so to do; and no Officer will in any way alter the appropriation of lands or buildings without the sanction of the Secretary of State for War.

22. No cultivation or shrubs are to be allowed in or near Magazine Yards.

23. No person is to be allowed, under any pretence whatever, to occupy houses or land belonging to the War Department without the express permission of the Secretary of State for War. Notice to be given to the Inspector-General of Fortifications six months before the expiration of any lease of a term of years, for houses or land.

24. Public competition.] No Officer, military or civil, of the War Department, shall be permitted to take ground which may be ordered to be let by public competition, nor to bid at auctions for any property of the Department.

25. Commanding Royal Engineers will inform themselves as to the period at which leases of Government land or buildings will fall in; they will then obtain tenders for a fresh letting, in all cases, when practicable, resorting to public competition.

26. In places where it is usual to let land by auction, that course may be adopted whenever the Commanding Royal Engineer thinks he may by that means obtain a higher tender.

27. At Home Stations public competition is never to be dispensed with without the authority of the Secretary of State for War.

28. At Foreign Stations public competition is never to be dispensed with without the authority of the Officer Commanding the Troops at the Station, and a full report of the circumstances must be at once made to the Secretary of State for War, through the Inspector-General of Fortifications.

29. At Home Stations the advertisement, or public notice should direct persons tendering to apply to the Commanding Royal Engineer for Forms of Tender, which should be filled up, and sent by post to the Director-General of Contracts, War Department, London, marked in the corner of the cover, "Tender for Land at ————."

30. The Commanding Royal Engineer will, at the same time transmit to the Inspector-General of Fortifications a copy of the advertisement, and his opinion of the competency of persons who have called for forms of tender.

31. At Foreign Stations on the letting of Buildings or Lands, the Commanding Royal Engineer will apply to the Commissariat Officer, or other Officer duly authorized to publish the necessary advertisements calling for tenders. The tenders received in pursuance thereof are to be opened by such Officer in the presence of the Commanding Royal Engineer, the Storekeeper, or other Officer acting as Accountant of the War Department, and the highest tender is to be accepted, provided the person tendering is considered competent.

The tenders are then to be delivered to the Commanding Royal Engineer, who will transmit them, with a report of his proceedings, to the Inspector-General of Fortifications.

32. In all cases the Storekeeper, or other Officer acting as Accountant of the War Department, must be made fully aware of the rent and terms of letting, to enable him to collect the rents.

The same course is to be followed in disposing of the grass or other produce of land which it is not considered advisable to let.

33. When legal advice is necessary at Foreign Stations the Commanding Royal Engineer will be guided by the Circular of 26 April, 1847 $\frac{E.}{49}$.

34. At Home Stations he will apply to the Inspector-General of Fortifications, who can obtain the assistance of the Solicitor of the Department.

35. Though the Commanding Royal Engineer is solely responsible for preventing encroachments, or any unauthorized use or appropriation of any land or building, the property of the War Department, it is the duty of every Officer in the Public Service, and more particularly the Barrack Master and Storekeeper, or other Officer acting as Accountant of the War Department, to point out to the Commanding Royal Engineer any instance of this kind that may come to their notice.

36. Before reletting any land or building, or proposing to the War Department to do so, the Commanding Royal Engineer must satisfy himself that it is not required for the Public Service, either for Barracks, Stores, or Works of Defence.

37. The Commanding Royal Engineer, or an Officer appointed by him, will represent the War Department on all Boards formed by Local Acts of Parliament at which it may be required that an Officer of the Department should sit, and he must apply for a Power of Attorney when necessary.

38. In all proposals and conditions of letting War Department premises it is to be provided that the rates, taxes, rent-charge, land tax, and all other parochial assessments, shall be paid by the tenant; and that the letting shall be void in case the lessee shall become bankrupt, or apply for, or take the benefit of, any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or of his doing or suffering any act which would subject the premises to be transferred by operation of law. Commanding Engineers are, therefore, to report all such cases to the Inspector-General of Fortifications.

39. Uninhabitable buildings.] A Special Report is to be transmitted by the Commanding Royal Engineer to the Inspector-General in each case, as it may arise, relating to any building which may be considered uninhabitable and unfit for repair. Before making this Report the Commanding Royal Engineer will refer to the Officer or Department in whose charge the building may be for such observations as he may have to offer. And in all cases of Barrack or Military accommodation the concurrence of the Officer in Command of the District or Colony should be obtained.

40. When works or buildings the property of the War Department are lent or let, under the conditions specified in the Order of 2nd May, 183[illegible] E 501, for occupation of the Coast Guard, or any other service, it is to be considered as a temporary measure, and the whole expense of their maintenance and restoration, when no longer required, will be chargeable to the Service by which they were occupied, and no alteration of construction, fitments or of appropriation, is to be made without the sanction of the Secretary of State for War. And, for ascertaining the due observance of this condition, the works and buildings so occupied are to be occasionally inspected, to ascertain the state of them as to repair; to see that the platforms of the towers are kept perfectly clean; and to see that the cesspools and drains are clean, and in proper order.

No new buildings of any description, particularly any piggery, henhouse, or construction of that nature, are to be erected, either within or without the site of the works without due authority, communicated through the Commanding Royal Engineer of the District. The payment of a groat's rent will be required in cases of the above nature.

On any Officer taking charge of a Tower, Battery or Barrack, for Revenue Service, an inventory of the several matters is to be taken in duplicate, and one lodged with the Engineer of the District, in which is to be distinctly stated all necessary particulars in regard to the nature of the building, its condition, and state of repair, in order that whenever the W.

Department may resume possession and occupation thereof, it may be received in the same state as when transferred for the Revenue Service.

41. In all cases where application is made to the War Department for the grant of Departmental property to other Departments, or to private persons, either by sale or otherwise, the Report of the Commanding Royal Engineer thereon should show, separately, the Extent of Land; its Value; and the Annual Income derived from it.

War Office, 16*th January*, 1857.

Sir,

The Secretary of State for War having had under his consideration the cases of Soldiers promoted to the rank of Serjeants, who at the time of their promotion are in receipt of extra rates of pay granted by the Good Conduct Warrant of the 8th July, 1848, and which extra rates, under present regulations, lapse upon promotion, I am directed to acquaint you that Lord Panmure has been pleased, with a view of rewarding those who by their good conduct have obtained the rank of Serjeant, and of encouraging other Soldiers to endeavour by good conduct to obtain similar promotion, to allow, from the 1st instant, all Serjeants now serving, and all who may be hereafter promoted, to retain, in addition to the established pay of their rank, the good conduct pay of which they were, or may be, in possession at the date of their promotion.

The charge may be made in the accounts of the Paymaster against the names of the Serjeants now serving, or who may be hereafter promoted, at the rates of good conduct pay of which they were respectively in possession at the date of their promotion.

It is, however, to be clearly understood that it is not intended to make applicable to the rank of Serjeant any of the provisions of the Good Conduct Warrant, by which a further increase of good conduct pay may be obtained, nor to subject Serjeants to the forfeiture prescribed by that Warrant while holding that rank, but every Serjeant reduced will be subject to the conditions prescribed by the Warrant of the 8th May, 1851.

To General Officers in command, Officers commanding, and Paymasters of Regiments, Depot Battalions and Independent Corps, Inspecting Field Officers, and Paymasters of Recruiting Districts, &c.

CIRCULAR, No 45. (Inspector-General of Fortifications.)

War Office, 14th February, 1857. — 224 B. / 192

With reference to the recent Reports of Commanding Royal Engineers as to the "state of Plans" in their respective districts, called for by Circular of 18th September, 1856, it is considered that much may be done towards making good the deficiencies by adapting to the purposes of the War Office the Admiralty Charts and large scale Ordnance Surveys:—on the former, the positions, and on the latter, the particulars, of the Lands and Works belonging to the War Office might be accurately delineated.

It is therefore proposed from time to time to transmit to the Commanding Engineers duplicate copies of such authentic engraved Plans as can be obtained, to be completed with information specially required for Military purposes: one copy being retained at the Station, and one transmitted for record in the War Office.

These Plans are to be finished with strict reference to Circular, dated 23rd February, 1849; and the boundaries are to be shown in compliance with Article 14, Revised Section VI. of the Code.

The configuration of the ground is to be shown on the Ordnance Survey Plans with the brush and sepia or indian ink, and not with the pen.

The Commanding Royal Engineers will cause to be added to the Plans any further information, not specified in the Circular of 1849, which they may consider useful for Military purposes.

All additions to and alterations in the Military Buildings, or in any important Civil structures, having a bearing on the Defences, which have occurred since the date of the Survey, are to be carefully introduced.

When the scale admits of it, as it will in the large scale Ordnance Plans, a few general sections are to be added.

By order of the Inspector-General of Fortifications,

H. C. OWEN.

The Commanding Royal Engineer.

SIR,

The Secretary of State for War having had under consideration the subject of the supply of Clothing and Necessaries for the disembodied Militia and the Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers forming the permanent Staff of the various Regiments in the United Kingdom, I am directed to inform you that his Lordship has decided upon the following general regulations, which are now communicated for the information and guidance of Officers commanding Militia Regiments.

1. The permanent Staff will be supplied with the following articles :—

1 Chaco every five years.
1 Tunic every two years.
1 pair of Trousers every two years.
1 pair of Boots every year.

2. The enrolled volunteers will be provided with the following articles of Clothing :—

1 Tunic
1 pair of Trousers
1 Chaco
2 Fatigue Jackets
2 pairs of Fatigue Trousers
1 pair of Boots
} every five years.

3. The boots may, however, be taken away by the Volunteers after the expiration of the training, upon the payment of 4*s*. 3*d*., half the original cost ; but should the Volunteer decline to take his boots after the training they must last five trainings ; a certified statement of the number of boots taken and of the sums received on account of the same is to be forwarded to this office as soon as possible after the expiration of the training.

4. Every Volunteer upon his first joining for training will be entitled to the following articles of necessaries :—

1 Stock
2 Shirts
2 pairs of Socks
1 Forage Cap
} every five years.

1 Haversack
1 Knapsack
} every ten years.

5. Great Coats for the permanent Staff will be required to last five years, and for enrolled Volunteers ten years.

6. The three suits of clothing are intended to last five years, and as it is of great importance that the men should always be in possession of one dress and one fatigue suit, the officer commanding will apply for the second suit whenever he may consider the same necessary, it being clearly understood that the articles issued are not to exceed the three suits allowed for the five trainings.

7. As all clothing is intended to last the time for which it was originally issued ; clothing belonging to men who may become non-effective is to be taken into store and a ticket affixed to every garment, showing the time has been in wear; and this clothing when reissued to volunteers should last the time it was intended to last, had the man not have become non-effective.

8. Should the regiment under your command have received new clothing only a short time previous to its disembodiment, his Lordship has decided that this clothing shall be made available for the next training, and must serve as a fatigue suit for the two subsequent trainings; and should you not be in possession of a sufficient number of suits for the effective strength of the regiment, the quantities required to meet the deficiencies will be forwarded to you upon your complying with the instructions contained in the letter from this Office of the 24th December, 1856. Y. 13,285.

9. In case your regiment should not have been embodied, you will receive complete clothing for next training, which should serve as fatigue suits for two subsequent trainings.

10. As this clothing will be required to serve as fatigue suits for two subsequent trainings, Lord Panmure has decided that the first issue of clothing of new pattern shall be made in 1858, and that the first issue of new fatigue clothing shall be made in 1860.

11. Chacos which were supplied with or at the same time as the clothing for 1856-7, will be required to last five trainings, but such chacos as have been previously worn will only be required to last the number of trainings stated as below.

If issued next training, five trainings.
If worn three months, four trainings.
„ six „ three trainings.
„ one year, two trainings.
„ one year and a half, two trainings.

12. Requisitions for the clothing, accompanied by the size rolls to enable the contractors to make the garments of the proper size, must be addressed to the Secretary of State for War seven months before the articles required are likely to be taken into wear, and the requisitions should demand such quantities as may be required for the Volunteers who may be expected to be present at the training.

13. The clothing will be supplied, made up and forwarded to the Head Quarters of each regiment, and a sum not exceeding two shillings per suit will be allowed for alterations for the permanent Staff, and one shilling per suit for the enrolled Volunteers.

14. These charges are only to be made when alterations are considered necessary, and the bills for the work performed must be forwarded in duplicate to this department properly certified by the Commanding Officer.

15. At the expiration of every training, the clothing is to be taken into Store, and an estimate prepared of the repairs which may be necessary.

16. The articles of necessaries enumerated in paragraph four will be supplied to Volunteers who have been enrolled since the regiment was disembodied, or since the last training, upon requisitions addressed to the Secretary of State for War, but should there be in Store any articles belonging to non-effective men, they are to be issued in the same manner as is pointed out in paragraph seven.

17. The necessaries supplied by Government are to be taken into Store in the same manner as the clothing, but the shirts and socks must be washed, and a sum not exceeding one halfpenny for every shirt and each pair of socks will be allowed by the public.

18. The bills for this service should be forwarded in duplicate properly certified, and will be paid to the Adjutant of the regiment.

19. The clothing and necessaries are in no case to become the property of the man, until they have been in wear five trainings, with the exception of the boots, which may be retained by the volunteer after the training, upon the payment of 4*s.* 3*d.* per pair.

ALLOWANCE FOR SOLDIERS PROCEEDING LONG DISTANCES BY RAILWAY WHEN NOT BILLETED AT ANY PLACE ON THE JOURNEY.

63,500

Gen. No. 319.

SIR, War Office, 18th February, 185[illegible]

ADVERTING to the Instructions sanctioning the issue of Marching Money for Soldiers proceeding long distances by Railway in England and Wales, when not billeted at any place on the journey, where the allowance of Ten pence for the hot meal becomes due to the Innkeeper,

I am directed by the Secretary of State for War to acquaint you that with a view to provide as far as practicable against the inconvenience attendant upon billeting Troops, especially large bodies, in populous districts (alluded to in the letter from this Department of 25th July last addressed to the Quarter Master General, copy of which accompanied Horse Guards' Circular of 29th July, to Officers Commanding), his Lordship, in concert with the General-Commanding-in-Chief, has again had the subject under consideration; and, with the concurrence of his Royal Highness and the Lords Commissioners of her Majesty's Treasury, has decided—

1. That in all cases in which the Military, including recruits and escorts, shall perform a continuous railway journey of 150 miles and upwards in any part of the United Kingdom, an allowance of Ten pence for each soldier shall be admitted as a charge in the Accounts, provided the public be not subjected to any charge on account of Billets or Marching Money (save as allowed by paragraph No. 3), or, in England, of the allowance for a hot meal granted by the 72nd clause of the Mutiny Act; and that whenever the continuous journey by rail of 250, 350 or 450 miles and upwards shall be performed, a second, third and fourth issue of the said allowance will be admissible on the like conditions, without reference to whether the Troops do or do not move into Barracks at the end of the journey.

2. That the second allowance should be issued to all Troops conveyed continuously the entire distance between Liverpool and Aldershot, or between Liverpool and Woolwich, although the distance travelled be under 250 miles, if the journey be performed in connection with an embarkation or disembarkation at Liverpool; and that the first allowance, Ten pe should be admissible for Troops moving to or from the Isle of Wight, if a continuous railway journey of not less than 100 miles shall have been performed, the second rate being admitted provided such journey shall extend to 200 miles, and so on; and in the case of Invalids sent to Chatham, the allowance of Ten pence will be admitted, if a continuous railway journey of not less than 100 miles be performed, an additional Ten pence being chargeable for every additional 100 miles completed.

3. That in every case in which a soldier shall march on foot a distance of Five miles and upwards, in proceeding to or from a railway station, an additional charge of Three pence will be admitted if the railway journey shall extend to 100 miles.

4. That such allowances of Ten pence in South Britain, or at the usual rate of marching money in Scotland and Ireland, as have been heretofore granted for railway journies of less than 100 miles, are to cease from the date of promulgation of this Circular; and, also, that the regulation contained in Article No. 350 of the Explanatory Directions annexed to the Royal Warrant of 1848, so far as it applies to soldiers conveyed by railway, is now abrogated.

Sale of Copies of Printed Schedules of Prices.

War Office, 23*rd February*, 1857. $\frac{\text{Z. 641}}{450}$

CASES having arisen of private Architects applying to be furnished with printed copies of the Royal Engineer District Schedules of Prices, the Secretary of State for War has considered in what way it is best to meet such applications.

Digitized by Google

His Lordship has decided that in all cases in which there is no strong reason to the contrary, the public should have the advantage of whatever skill and trouble may have been given to subjects of this kind by Her Majesty's Officers, upon payment of a certain fixed price.

That price should be such as should not only cover the cost of paper and printing, but entirely to negative any idea that it is intended to enter into any competition with Price Books published by private enterprize.

After consulting with the Comptroller of the Stationery Office, this price has been fixed at 3*d*. per folio foolscap sheet.

In all future cases of printing Schedules of Prices, the Commanding Royal Engineer will have the price printed on the title page, computed at the rate of 3*d*. per foolscap folio sheet. Thus, if it consists of seven sheets the words "Price 1*s*. 9*d*." would be printed on the title page.

The Commanding Royal Engineer will then furnish to the Storekeeper or other local Accountant of the War Office, such a number of copies as are likely to be wanted by private individuals, who are, upon inquiry, to be directed to apply to the Storekeeper.

The Storekeeper or Barrack Master will render to the Accountant-General, half-yearly, a statement of the number of copies received from the Commanding Royal Engineer, the number sold, amount received, and number of copies on hand, and this return is to be certified by the Commanding Royal Engineer.

As it is never likely that more than a few copies will be demanded, it does not seem necessary at present to incur the expense of printing a greater number than it has been hitherto the custom to print.

The sale, or distribution, of copies by any Officer of the Department, or through any other channel than that above pointed out, is positively forbidden.

Contractors are to be furnished with the number of copies necessary, at the direction of the Commanding Royal Engineer.

General No. 68,700 112.

War Office, 24*th February*, 1857.

Sir,

The future prices for the purchase of remount Horses for the Royal Artillery and Cavalry, in lieu of the special rates allowed during the late War, having been brought under the consideration of the Secretary of State for War by His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief, who has represented that it would tend to the advantage of the Service if Horses at four years old be obtained, rather than at the age at which they have hitherto been purchased, viz., three years, I am directed to acquaint you that Lord Panmure concurs with His Royal Highness in this view, and has accordingly consented to advance the price of four year old Horses for the Artillery from 31*l*. 10*s*. to sums not exceeding 36*l*., and for the Cavalry from 26*l*. 5*s*. to sums not exceeding 30*l*., at which improved prices it is considered good serviceable Horses, and sooner fit for duty in the ranks than younger Horses, may be readily obtained.

I am, however, to add that, in exceptional cases, Horses at three years old may be purchased, provided special authority be in the first instance obtained from the Adjutant-General, but that in such cases no more than 30*l.* in the Artillery, and 26*l.* in the Cavalry, will be allowed as a charge against the public.

The age of Horses of all descriptions purchased for the Artillery or Cavalry are to be calculated from the 1st of May.

All Horses inspected after the receipt of this letter at the Head Quarters of the Regiment or Depot under your command should be accordingly purchased upon these terms.

MEMORANDUM, No. 56.

War Office, 24th February, 1857. $\frac{275-23}{115}$

THE Secretary of State for War finding that considerable misapprehension prevails with respect to the relative functions of the Store Branch and the Manufactories of the War Office, desires that the following Rules be observed:—

1.—All manufactured articles of every description are to be in charge of the Store Branch, which is to be exclusively responsible for holding a sufficient quantity on hand, as well as for keeping them in proper preservation and repair.

2.—All Demands and Orders for the issue of Stores to the various Services are to be forwarded to the Store Branch for execution.

3.—If the Stores should not be on hand, or if, after issuing them, it should be necessary to replace them, the Store Branch will make Requisitions for them; on which authority will be given for the purchase or manufacture (as the case may be) of the Stores required.

4.—All articles of the descriptions with which the Government Manufactories are concerned, when returned into Store after use, will be inspected by the Officers of the Manufactories, and will be reported by them to the Storekeeper, as the case may be, "Serviceable," "Repairable," "Unserviceable" or "Obsolete," and he will bring them on his charge accordingly.

5.—In the event of there being in possession of the Store Branch any Repairable or convertible Stores which may be made applicable to the completion of any Order made on the Manufactories, the Superintendent of the Manufactory concerned will demand the quantity of such Stores which may be required for that purpose.

Digitized by Google

6.—In all cases of doubt or difficulty connected with the condition of Stores with which the Government Manufactories are concerned, as generally when requisite, it will be the duty of the Store Branch to obtain the opinion and assistance of the Officers of the Manufactories; and the Director of Stores and his Officers will be held strictly and exclusively responsible, if, from neglect of this precaution, Stores, either of an unsuitable kind, or in an imperfect condition, be issued for Service; or if Stores which have become unserviceable from change of pattern or any other cause, be kept unnecessarily on hand, instead of being converted or sold.

7.—All Requisitions for the provision of Stores made by the Heads of the Manufactories will in the first place be transmitted to the Store Branch, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any of the Articles can be supplied from Store; and the Store Branch will transmit to the Accountant-General a List of all Stores supplied by it to the Manufactories, in order that such Stores may be valued, and the Votes of the Manufactory concerned debited with the amount.

War Office, 24th February, 1857.

Sir,

I am directed by Lord Panmure to inform you, that as the Commissioned Quartermasters of Militia Corps who are serving on the Permanent Staff are not provided with Quarters by the public, his Lordship approves of their being allowed 8*s*. a week as Lodging Money, provided they are not furnished with Quarters by the County.

The allowance may, therefore, be issued to the Quartermaster of the Regiment under your command, from the date of its disembodiment, if he be holding the Commission, but should he have been commissioned subsequently, only from that of his joining the Head Quarters of the Permanent Staff.

This 8*s*. a week, like the 10*s*. granted to the Adjutant, is to be viewed as covering both Lodging Money, and Fuel and Light, and should be charged in the disembodied Pay List up to the 31st of December last, and thenceforward claimed direct from the Accountant-General, War Office, Pall Mall, in the Monthly Account for the combined allowance in lieu of Quarters, and Fuel and Light for the other members of the Disembodied Staff.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient Servant,

War Office, 27th February, 1857. $\frac{167 \text{ L}}{417}$

Sir,—1. I am directed to acquaint you that the Secretary of State for War has decided that the Paymaster of a Depôt Battalion at Home shall not be required to occupy a Quarter in Barracks or Huts, but be entitled to permanent Lodging Money and Fuel and Light Allowance at the rate of 15*s.* per week, and shall be provided with two rooms in Barracks or Huts, the one for an Office for himself, and the other for his Clerks, with the regulated issues of Fuel and Light for each room.

2. This provision of Offices for the Paymaster's convenience, distinct from his own residence, will in no degree exonerate him from his responsibility for any Public Monies or other property in his charge.

3. This allowance may be claimed monthly, from 1st April next, in accounts prepared according to the form annexed, to be transmitted to the Accountant General, War Office, Pall Mall, marked in the upper left hand corner of the cover "Lodging Money."

CIRCULAR, No. 63. (HOME STATIONS.)

War Office, 7th March, 1857.

THE Secretary of State for War desires that measures may be taken to prevent the delay that has occurred in many engineer districts in forwarding the Certificates for work performed by the Contractors.

No less than 74 Certificates reached the Department of the Accountant General between the 1st January and 19th February, 1857, for work done in the quarter ending the 30th September last, and many even for the quarter ending the 30th June.

Digitized by Google

The measurements for the works of each quarter are provided by the terms of the triennial Contracts to be completed within twenty-one days after the end of each quarter, and the Certificates should certainly be forwarded to the Accountant General without fail before the close of the month succeeding the end of the quarter.

The consequence of delays in settling the claim of Contractors is, that numerous personal applications are made at the War Office for payment of claims, which, if the terms of the Contract had been fulfilled by the Engineer Department, ought to have been settled many months before.

So frequent have these applications become, that the Accountant General has been compelled to decline to receive any but written remonstrances, accompanied in every case by a letter from the Commanding Royal Engineer, stating the date upon which the certified claim was forwarded by him.

The Secretary of State considers these delays discreditable to the service, and the embarrassment which is often caused to Contractors naturally leads to an increase in the general rate of tenders for engineer services, and therefore to an inexcusable waste of the public funds, which the Secretary of State is resolved to check by every means in his power.

It is also clear that when such delays take place in measuring and computing the prices of work actually performed, it must be difficult for the Commanding Engineers of Districts to establish that strict comparison between the estimated and actual expenditure on each authorized service, which will alone enable them to avoid the frequent, and otherwise inexplicable, excesses which take place in services of a perfectly simple character, in which there have been no engineering difficulties to encounter.

Whenever the delay may be fairly shown to arise from a temporary want of the necessary staff, it is the duty of a Commanding Engineer immediately to report it for the information of the Secretary of State.

With regard to services performed within the last quarter of the present and each succeeding financial year, the most strenuous efforts should be made to measure up work to the latest possible date, so that detailed Certificates for the same may be transmitted to the Accountant General on or before the 25th of March, and care should be taken that these, and all other, Certificates so forwarded for examination and allowance, give the full names and addresses of Contractors, and show the order accepting the Contract as well as that approving the annual estimate, sanctioning the special service or authorizing the excess, as the case may be.

SIR, War Office, 19th March, 1857.

IT having been determined that Officers as well as Soldiers who may form part of the Force destined for service in China shall have the privilege of making remittances of their pay for the benefit of their friends at home, I am directed by the Secretary of State for War to call your attention to the several articles at pages 71 and 72 of the Explanatory Directions, and, as Lord Panmure is desirous that every facility shall be given to those engaged in this service, to acquaint you that new forms have been prepared, a sufficient supply of which will be immediately transmitted to the Paymasters of Regiments under your command.

This form will have to be filled up by the Paymaster, and signed by him and by the Officer or Soldier making the remittance; the form will then be given to the remitter, who will transmit it to the party at home, to whom he intends to make the remittance, the Paymaster taking care to enter on the fly-leaf such particulars as will be required to be inserted in his Pay List, and to enable him fully to carry out Art. 233 of the Explanatory Directions.

The Regimental Agent will be instructed to pay the sum remitted on presentation of the form above alluded to, and will charge such sum, vouched by the said form, in his public accounts.

The Paymaster will transmit to this Office, by every mail, a return of the sums he has received for remittance, and will send a duplicate thereof to the Regimental Agent.

The Paymaster will also cause to be posted up in a conspicuous place notice of the days when the Mails depart for England, so that the Officers and Men may be aware of the proper time for sending home their remittances.

I am further instructed to add, that you should cause every facility to be afforded to the carrying out of these measures.

SIR, War Office, 20th March, 1857.

MUCH inconvenience having been felt from the manner in which Contingent Clothing accounts have hitherto been sent in, I am directed by the Secretary of State for War to request, that in forwarding those due on the 31st instant, the following instructions may be strictly adhered to, in addition to the rules already laid down for the guidance of Officers commanding.

1st. Contingent Clothing Accounts are to be forwarded, addressed to the Secretary of State for War, as soon after the 31st instant as possible.

2nd. These accounts are to be a debtor and creditor account, in duplicate, charging on one side all sums disbursed on account of clothing, compensation, carriage, marking, and all matters connected with clothing.

3rd. All charges must be supported by vouchers, if possible—if not, by a certificate of the Commanding Officer.

4th. On the credit side, credit should be given for all sums realized by sale of old clothing, or recovered from the men by stoppages for over issues, and the credits should be supported by a certificate of the Commanding Officer as to the sum realized.

5th. The only charges or credits not requiring a voucher or certificate in support, are the compensation paid to men, or the money stopped from them on account of over issues of clothing—for which the Nominal Clothing Return will be considered a sufficient voucher.

6th. The Nominal Clothing Return should, if possible, accompany the Contingent Account, as the latter cannot be passed without it.

7th. In Depôt Battalions, a separate Contingent Account should be sent in for each Depôt composing the Battalion.

8th. It is to be clearly understood that the Contingent Accounts required on the 31st instant are only to include transactions which have taken place between the date of the last account sent in and the 31st instant, and are not to be a recapitulation of the whole year or of any period for which accounts have already been forwarded.

MEMORANDUM.

ARTIFICIAL ARMS AND LEGS.

THE Lords and others Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital having at the suggestion and recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, made Arrangements for the supply of Artificial Arms (constructed upon an improved principle) and of Artificial Legs (in imitation of the natural leg, both as to form and motion) to those Commissioned Officers who have been wounded in the Service, whose means may not enable them to provide themselves with more expensive contrivances,—it is hereby notified, that such Officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this benefit, and whose cases may come within the above regulation, should address their applications upon the subject to the Secretary of Chelsea Hospital. It is, however, to be clearly understood, that, as this is intended to be a boon to Officers of the above description, no pecuniary allowance in lieu can be granted to Officers who may prefer providing themselves with other substitutes for limbs.

6th. Has he certificates of ability and fitness from Officers under whom he served?

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.
If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.
A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.
When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's license and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.
Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

No. 3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK £500,000.

THIS Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

PETER MORRISON, Managing Director.
